All One in Christ

A Catholic Critique of Racism and Critical Race Theory

Edward Feser

What does the Catholic Church teach about racism? What should Catholics think about Critical Race Theory, which is currently being widely promoted in the name of anti-racism? All One in Christ provides an exposition and defence of the Church's clear and consistent condemnation of racism, and shows that this condemnation is not a recent development, but is deeply rooted in centuries of papal teaching and Scholastic theology. It also shows that Critical Race Theory, far from being a remedy for racism, is in fact a new and insidious form of racism that cannot be reconciled with the social teaching of the Church and must be vigorously opposed by all Catholics.

The Genesis of Gender

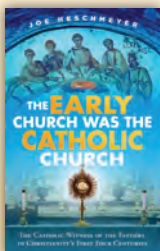

A Christian Theory

Abigail Favale

The question of gender—who we are as men and women—has never been more pressing, or more misunderstood.

Weaving personal experience with expert knowledge, Dr. Abigail Favale provides an in-depth yet accessible account of the gender paradigm: a framework for understanding reality and identity that has recently risen to prominence. With substance, clarity, and compassion, Favale teases out the hidden assumptions of the gender paradigm and exposes its effects. Yet this book is not merely an exposé—it is also a powerful, moving articulation of a Christian understanding of reality: a holistic paradigm that proclaims the dignity of the body, the sacramental meaning of sexual difference, and the interconnectedness of all creation.

The Early Church Was the Catholic Church

Joe Heschmeyer

When it comes to the history of Christianity, the Catholic Church makes a pretty bold claim: that the earliest Christians were Catholics—and that their beliefs and practices have continued unbroken all the way to the present-day Church. But how can you be sure the Catholic Church has it right? You'll get your answer from Joe Heschmeyer, who deftly joins the Catholic past and present, focusing on the first two centuries and bedrock principles of Christian belief, authority, and worship.

Introducing an Evangelizing Catechesis That Answers Life's Deepest Questions

A new vision for catechesis in parishes and schools

The Church needs new catechetical resources that not only provide faithful teaching, it must evangelize. A true evangelizing catechesis must explain who we are as human persons, what our purpose in life is, why the faith is relevant in our modern culture, and how the Church provides the truth and grace to fulfill our mission. Most importantly, catechesis must effectively call parents, teachers, and students to conversion and transformation in Christ.

Word of Life offers solutions for authentic catechetical renewal.

This new vision requires innovative teaching models that guide children, teachers, and parents to rediscover their authentic Catholic identity and reinvigorate fruitful participation in the Church's life and mission.

Grades K to 5 available Summer 2022
Grades 6 to 8 available Summer 2023

Evangelizing Catechesis

Word of Life brings together faith and reason and demonstrates how the truths of the faith speak to the human heart.

The Word of Life K–8 curriculum responds to the 2020 Directory for Catechesis and its call to help Christians “give a complete meaning to their existence, educating them in a mentality of faith in keeping with the Gospel” (Directory, no. 77). Responding to the needs of contemporary culture and those of modern man requires an “evangelizing catechesis.” This catechesis centers on an initial proclamation of the kerygma.

Forming the Human Person

What makes Word of Life unique and impactful is its approach to the “formation of a Christian mentality” (Directory for Catechesis, no. 71), and how it creates “a coherent doctrinal vision that can be used as a reference in life” (ibid., no. 80).

This new initiative is a rediscovery rather than a reinvention. Word of Life unites a faithful articulation of the faith as it is presented in the Catechism of the Catholic Church with, when necessary, esteemed sources in the living tradition of the Church to form a presentation of faith that is meaningful, practical, and intelligible for modern students.

Through four golden catechetical threads, Word of Life provides a vision with answers.

1. Salvation History

Proclaims God's presence in history, His plan for mankind, and our place in that plan.

2. Christian Anthropology

Reveals the dignity of every person and our identity in Christ.

3. Heroic Virtue and Character Formation

Presents an integrated approach to virtue and living as a person of character who is transformed by grace.

4. Learning through Discipleship

Inspires students to live as committed disciples of Christ.

Word of Life Core Components:

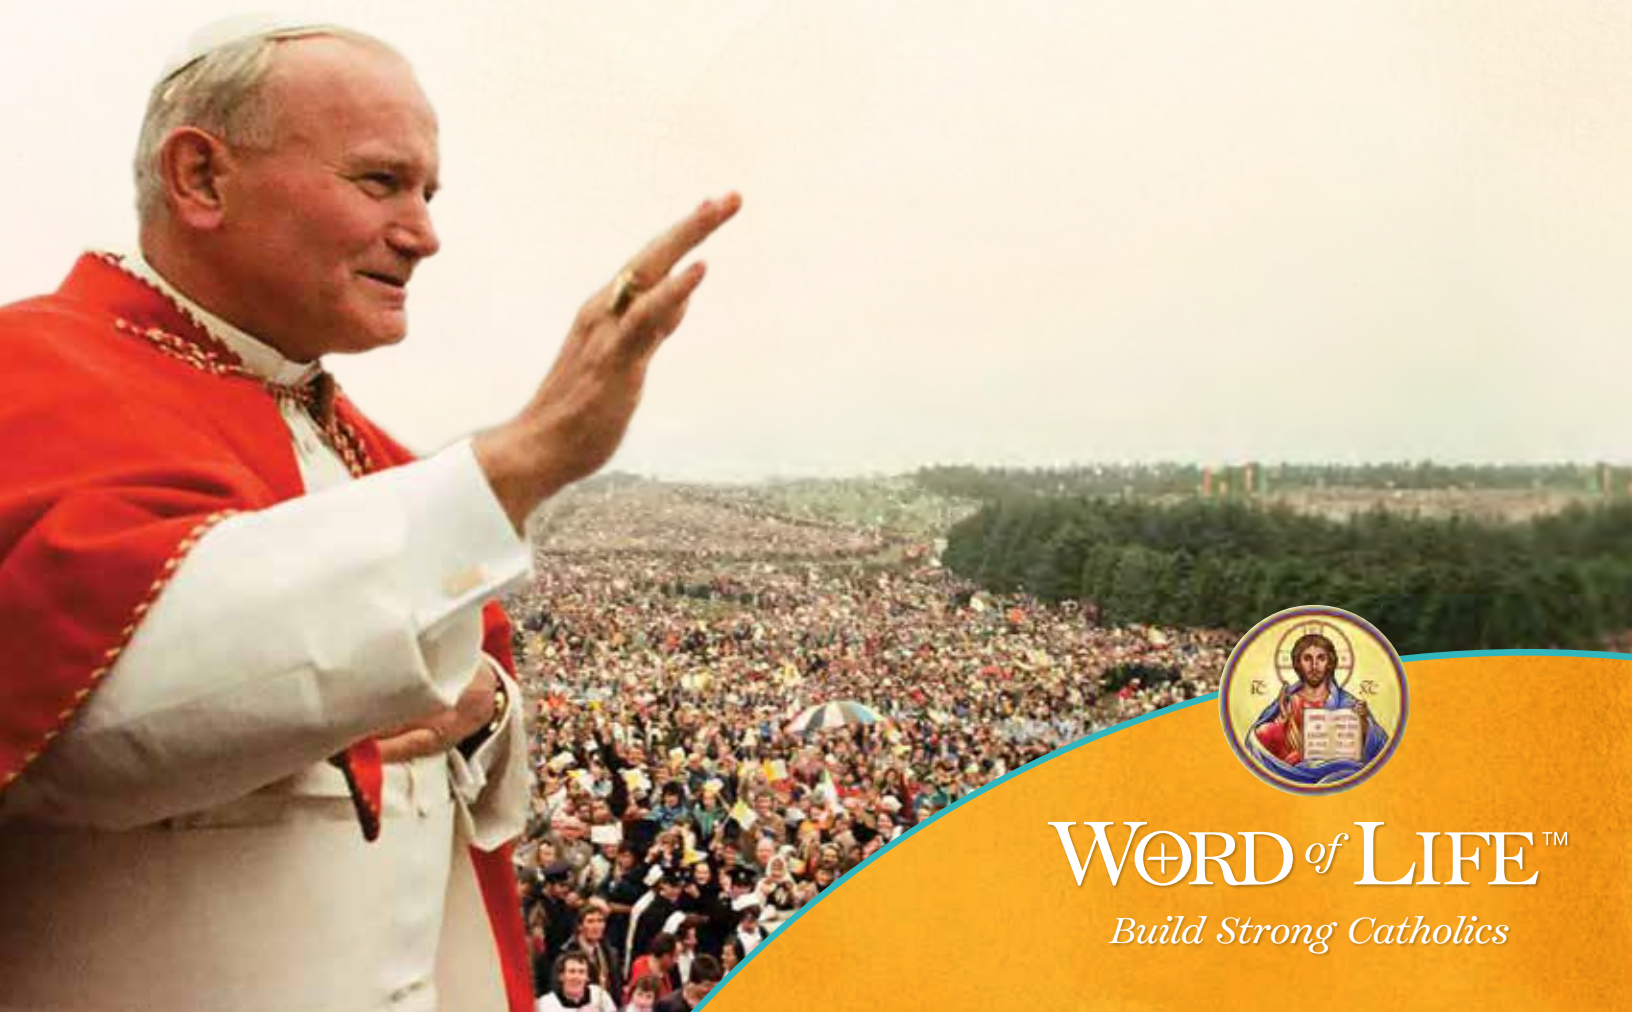

- Parish and School English and Bilingual Editions
- Print and Digital Student Texts and Teacher Manuals
- Engaging online student interactions
- Numerous video and digital media enhancements for use in the classroom and at home
- Multilevel Teacher and Catechist Formation
- Parent and Family Faith Formation
- Provides flexibility for various catechetical models

“The new evangelization in which the whole continent is engaged means that faith cannot be taken for granted, but must be explicitly proposed in all its breadth and richness. This is the principal objective of catechesis, which, by its very nature, is an essential aspect of the new evangelization. “Catechesis is a process of formation in faith, hope and charity; it shapes the mind and touches the heart, leading the person to embrace Christ fully and completely. It introduces the believer more fully into the experience of the Christian life, which involves the liturgical celebration of the mystery of the Redemption and the Christian service of others”.

Sacramental Prep

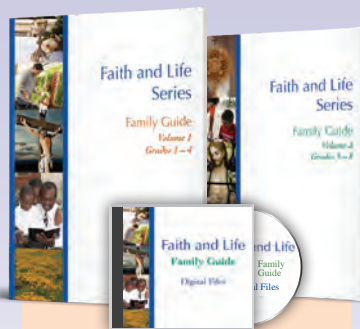

Reconciliation & First Communion

Grade 2 prepares students to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Holy Communion by helping them to understand how the Sacraments are a part of the love story between God and man:

- The students see how the present is linked to the past and how the covenants of the Old Testament are fulfilled in the New Covenant.
- They learn how the past events of the Bible become present to us during all liturgical celebrations.

Preparing for the Sacraments in the context of this story will make it clear that the sacraments are not mere rituals; rather it is through the Sacraments that we are intimately united to God and receive His redeeming grace and mercy.

Benefits for Students & Families

- Parents are empowered to become primary teachers of their children's faith. It is the perfect means to learn the Faith at home when there is not enough time in the classroom.
- Children are given the flexibility to learn their faith at a time that does not conflict with their sports or other family activities.
- Learning is individualized; students learn at their own pace.

Benefits for Schools & Parishes

- Teachers and catechists have more time to teach skills, for activities and discussions.
- Assessments and reports are all automated online making it easy for teachers and catechists to communicate with parents.

"Faith and Life Online gives us the opportunity to learn the 'meat and potatoes' of Catholicism at home as a family. We use the lessons to engage the family on Sundays as an enrichment program."

— Program Director at Saint Alban Roe Catholic
Church, St. Louis, MO

Flipping the Classroom

A new approach to improving parish religious education and engaging children in the faith.

Flipping the Classroom is a new approach that is opposite from traditional classroom learning where lecture is followed by homework. Students learn cognitive material online at home. Then classroom time is left open for skills and application. Through Faith and Life online learning is always engaging, interactive and individualized.
